

Feedback and Complaints Management Policy

1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose

This Policy supports Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health to apply the Feedback and Complaints Management NDIS Practice Standard.

1.2 Policy Aims

Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health is committed to ensuring that each participant has knowledge of and access to the provider's complaints management and resolution system. Complaints and other feedback made by all parties are welcomed, acknowledged, respected and well-managed.

1.3 NDIS Quality Indicators

In this regard, Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health aims to demonstrate each of the following quality indicators through the application of this Policy and the relevant systems, procedures, workflows and other strategies referred to in this Policy:

- (a) Describe how the provider manages complaints, or provide a copy of your complaints process, as relevant to the support delivered for this registration group, including any relevant material provided to participants.
- (b) The process must meet the requirements of the National Disability Insurance Scheme (Complaints) Rules 2018 and follows principles of fairness and natural justice. The process should be relevant (proportionate) to the size and scale of the provider and to the scope and complexity of the supports being delivered.

1.4 Scope

- (a) This Policy applies to the provision of all services and supports at Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health.
- (b) All permanent, fixed term and casual staff, contractors and volunteers are required to take full responsibility for ensuring full understanding of the commitments outlined in this Policy.
- (c) The relevant persons specified in the column corresponding to a procedure described in this Policy have the responsibility to implement the relevant systems, procedures, workflows and other strategies referred to in the relevant procedure.

3. Policy Statement

Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health aims to ensure:

- (a) a system to manage and resolve complaints is maintained that follows principles of procedural fairness and natural justice and complies with the requirements under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (Complaints Management and Resolution) Rules 2018 (Complaints Management System);
- (b) Clients have knowledge of and access to the Complaints Management System;
- (c) Clients are provided with information on how to give feedback or make a complaint, including avenues external to the provider, and their right to access advocates;
- (d) complaints and other feedback made by all parties are welcomed, acknowledged, respected and well-managed.
- (e) all clients, and their families, carers, representatives and advocates are encouraged and supported to provide feedback, provide compliments or raise any concerns they have about Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health's service or organisation including making complaints;
- (f) that we handle all feedback and complaints fairly, efficiently and effectively;
- (g) that we provide a satisfactory resolution to complaints within a reasonable timeframe;

Approved By:	The board of Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health Pty Ltd	Version	1
Approval Date:	September 2020	Next Scheduled Review	September 2022

- (h) appropriate actions are taken to improve our services where required and that we provide better outcomes to our stakeholders;
- (i) there is demonstrated continuous improvement in complaints and feedback management by regular review of complaint and feedback policies and procedures, seeking of client/participant views on the accessibility of the Complaints Management System, and incorporation of feedback throughout the provider's organisation; and
- (j) all Workers are aware of, trained in, and comply with the required procedures in relation to complaints handling.

4. Who can make a complaint?

- (a) Any of Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health's clients, families, carers, advocates, statutory bodies, government agencies, stakeholders, Workers or any other person may make a complaint to or about Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health, its practitioners, employees, contractors, volunteers and other Workers.
- (b) A complaint may be made on an anonymous basis.

5. Process for making complaints

5.1 How to make a complaint

A person wishing to make a complaint may do so:

- (a) in person to the Principal or a Worker;
- (b) by email to abundant.living.physio@gmail.com;
- (c) on our website <https://abundant-living-physiotherapy-allied-health.business.site/>;
- (d) by post to: 205/20 Egmont St Sherwood 4075 QLD; or
- (e) verbally by telephone to +61437246312.

The Principal will be responsible for receiving any email and postal correspondence and managing the receipt and resolution of complaints in accordance with section 6.

For all verbal and written complaints received in a form other than the Feedback and Complaints Form, the recipient of the complaint will request the complainant to provide their complaint in the form of the Feedback and Complaints Form.

5.2 Support and assistance in relation to making complaints

All Workers shall be responsible for ensuring appropriate support and assistance is provided to any person in connection with this Complaints Management System including any person who wishes to make, or has made, a complaint by:

- (a) providing accessible information to complainants (including the Feedback and Complaints Summary and this Complaints Management System) in relation to how to make a complaint;
- (b) providing a safe environment for a complainant to make a complaint or provide negative feedback without fear of adverse consequences, retribution or loss of service as a result of making a complaint;

Approved By:	The board of Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health Pty Ltd	Version	1
Approval Date:	September 2020	Next Scheduled Review	September 2022

- (c) treating all complainants with respect, recognising that the complaint is important to the complainant;
- (d) maintaining the confidentiality of parties involved in the complaint in accordance with section 8 below;
- (e) facilitating the participation of an advocate or other representative or support person in connection with the discussion and resolution of a complaint, if required;
- (f) providing Clients, families, carers and advocates with access to this Complaints Management System and the Feedback and Complaints Summary;
- (g) complying with this Complaints Management System and the Feedback and Complaints Summary;
- (h) advising complainants and potential complainants in relation to how a complaint or issue may be raised with the NDIS Commission and giving appropriate support and assistance to people affected by an issue raised in a complaint to contact the NDIS Commission;
- (i) appropriately responding to complaints, acknowledging, assessing and resolving the matter in a fair, efficient and timely manner with as little formality as a proper consideration of the complaint allows;
- (j) taking action in relation to issues raised in complaints;
- (k) if a serious risk is identified, taking corrective action;
- (l) keeping parties to the complaint appropriately involved and informed of the progress of the complaint;
- (m) ensuring that feedback and complaints data (both positive and negative) is considered in training and in planning service and support delivery;
- (n) ensuring the complaints process is procedurally fair and follows the principles of natural justice as set out in the NDIS (Procedural Fairness) Guidelines 2018; and
- (o) reviewing and evaluating the accessibility and effectiveness of the Complaints Management System and continually improving its processes.

5.3 Protection for worker disclosures

Workers are supported by the Principal and Key Management Personnel to report incidents and complaints. There are no negative consequences for Workers in doing so. All Workers are advised that they can make a complaint on behalf of a person, parent, guardian or child to Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health or to the NDIS Commission. All Workers are required to comply with this Complaints Management System and be aware of their roles and responsibilities in receiving, supporting, managing and resolving incidents and complaints.

6. Persons who will manage the receipt and resolution of complaints

If the complaint is about:

- (a) a person other than the Principal, the complaint will normally be managed and dealt with by the Principal unless the Principal determines that an External Complaint Manager should manage and deal with the complaint; and
- (b) the Principal, the complaint will normally be managed and dealt with by another Senior Staff Member at Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health, however, if no such person exists or if it is otherwise inappropriate given the nature of the complaint for the Senior Staff Manager to manage the complaint, an External Complaint Manager will manage and deal with the complaint, (Complaint Manager).

- (c) More than one person may act as Complaint Manager for organisational reasons or to avoid conflicts of interest or the appearance of bias.
- (d) More than one person may act as Complaint Manager for complaints involving multiple persons if required in order to avoid conflicts of interest or the appearance of bias.
- (e) If the complainant is not satisfied with the investigation and proposed resolution of their complaint in accordance with section 7, they can seek a further review of the complaint by an External Complaint Manager (that has not previously acted as Complaint Manager in relation to the complaint). When undertaking their review of the complaint, the External Complaint Manager must follow the same process in resolving the complaint as the Complaint Manager and as otherwise set out in section 7.

7. Procedure for resolving complaints

The Policy is supported by the following Procedures which are intended to clarify the responsibilities of the board, Principal, Key Management Personnel, Workers and other persons and make explicit the underlying principles of the Policy.

Procedure	Responsibility
7.1 Overview <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Any Worker at Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health may be a recipient of a complaint. However, in all cases, the Complaint Manager is primarily responsible for managing the process and resolution of complaints in accordance with this section. (b) The Complaint Manager will use all reasonable endeavours to complete the following process (Complaints Process) within 21 days. The Complaint Manager will keep the complainant up-to-date on progress of the Complaints Process, particularly if there are any delays. It may be appropriate for the Complaints Process to be extended to ensure relevant parties are afforded procedural fairness (c) The Complaints Process is to be applied in receiving and resolving all complaints at Abundant Living Physiotherapy & Allied Health but the individual elements and actions the Complaint Manager decides to take may be tailored to each complaint (subject to any legislative requirements). (d) As part of the handling of a complaint under the Complaints Process, procedural fairness must be afforded to a person (including a Worker) if their rights or interests may be adversely or detrimentally affected. 	Recipient of Complaint, Principal, Key Management Personnel and Complaint Manager
7.2 Receive complaint <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) In the case of a verbal complaint, the recipient of a complaint should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) genuinely listen to the complainant, their support person or advocate; (2) make sure the complainant feels comfortable; (3) acknowledge how the situation has affected the person; 	Recipient of Complaint, Principal, Key Management Personnel and Complaint Manager
